The Staffing Landscape

Market Conditions

- 80% of large employers considered using a VMS.
- Days to fill increased in every industry.
- Referrals are a top source for finding new clients & candidates.
- Fast growing agencies are almost twice as likely to use a VMS.
- And, fast growing agencies filled 19% more of their job orders.

Agency Challenges

- Slow job order volume
- High turnover
- Slow demand from current clients
- Diminishing supply of candidates
- Slow reaction time from candidates and clients
- Poor visibility
- Dated recruiting techniques

Express + SimpleVMS Success

Client Scenario

Express + SimpleVMS Success

Client Scenario

- Multiple locations, light-industrial
- Non-exclusive vendor environment
- Average headcount of 150
- Billing up to $130k weekly
- Needed centralized job posting, timekeeping, and invoicing

Client Solution

- Express leveraged existing partnerships to recommend SimpleVMS as the solution.
- Centralized and streamlined all their problem areas at no cost.
- Express office earns an additional channel partner commission monthly.

The Big Difference - MSP & VMS

MSP

- Manages client staffing programs.
- Owns vendor relationships.

VMS

- Software used by an MSP.
- Client manages vendor relationships and their staffing program.

An MSP may not always be the right fit. Best practice is to give your client options!

It Pays to Be a SimpleVMS Channel Partner

Your Agency: Discounted VMS Fee + Commission

SimpleVMS pays you a commission based on total program spend.

MSP: Discounted VMS Fee + Program Split

SimpleVMS splits the fees paid by other vendors in the program.

Program Support: No-Cost

SimpleVMS provides training, support, implementation, customizations, timekeeping, reporting, and more, at no cost to you or your clients.
